

Metal clamours
Doors slam
The decision made
But its not yours

The neighbours scream
Shout and sing
Kick the doors and carry on

We'll all get nothing
And we better like it!
We have no rights
We have no power

Do what they say
“or else”
Vague threats but very real
What to do with your new found time?

Racism, sexism
Transphobia, homophobia
Ableism, extremism
The list goes on
Its all the norm here
The hate never sleeps

Doors slam, radios chirp
Cameras roll, you're center stage

In the distance, you see a sergeant
In a rush to leave, and you go unseen

Mental health care lacking
Medical care non-existent

They'll say “you're scum”
No, you're human!
And gosh darnit, you deserve better!
